Explanation of the Asatoma - From Darkness To Light- Sound Vibration Energy:

‘Asatoma Satgamaya’, means: ‘Lead me from the Unreal to the Real’.

That is the Material world; that is the world that is enjoyed by your Physical Body.

The Unreal is your Physical-Form.

You must get away from this Physical-Form and reach the Atma, which is the Divine within you.

You will be taken to the Real world, the Spiritual world where you get enriched with Divine Knowledge and you realize that the Atma within you is the Paramatma or the Divine.

That is the meaning of the first line ‘Asatoma Satgamaya’, from the ‘Unreal to the Real’.

The second line states: ‘Tamasoma Jyotirgamaya’, from ‘Darkness to Light’.

Darkness is when your Mind is blank and refuses to realize Positive Spiritual Knowledge.

Light is when you receive Positive Spiritual Knowledge and the Mind functions with guidance of the Soul or Atma within you.

Never have a Mind which is blocked by all your senses.

Have a Mind which is open to the Atma within you.

That Mind is the Divine Knowledge, which is Pure, which is full of Love, Truth and Righteousness.

It is the Mind that you have to light up.

‘Tamasoma Jyotirgamaya’, from ‘Darkness to Light’.

The third line: ‘Mrityoma Amritamgamaya’.

Your Physical-Form stays with you from the Time your Mother with her love creates you in her Uterus.

The Physical-Form is a creation of the Mother, and you are born on Divine Mother Earth.

You lead a Life which is controlled by your senses and Mind.

And you live a Life where there is a limit.

It is not indefinite.

And when that limit on Mother Earth comes to an end you lay down your Physical Body and that Physical-Form disintegrates and goes back to the five (5) elements from which the form was created, ‘Death’.

And when that form is laid to rest on Mother Earth, the Atma within that form continues its journey, a journey which is indefinite.

There is no limit, it is infinity.

Atma can be born again in another form in another galaxy, in any part of the Universe.

For Atma is part of The Divine, the Universe ‘OMm Shakti’.

‘Mrityoma Amritamgamaya OMm’,

‘Immortality is reached from Death to Immortality’.
