

You Do Not Know Who He Is!

Allah's blessings to you.

You have many doubts that is running through your Mind, and these doubts are making you behave not like a human.

My child, Man is born on Divine Mother Earth to perform his duties with Love, Truth and Righteousness.

But in this age Man does not follow any one of these principles.

He feels that he must achieve his desires which is brought about by his senses.

He never uses his brain that is so powerful, which decides what is good and what is bad for him.

Instead of using his Mind, he follows his senses to fulfil his desires.

He follows no principles that is Righteousness for him wealth and pleasure must come first.

For wealth and pleasure he will do all the wrong doings so that he receives the wealth and pleasure.

A leader is not made in a day.

It takes a craftsman many months to finish a beautiful carpet, sometimes even years.

A leader must go through the craftsman's tolls like a carpet which is woven with great care, love and accuracy.

The leader also must learn the negative and positive aspects of Life.

Even the very small details must be carefully understood.

No leader will say, 'Yes, now I believe and I have faith', and just after few hours the leader says, 'I do not believe and I do not have faith'; because of a few unknown mistakes that the leader finds.

My child, if you want to become a leader then follow My instructions and the advice G gives.

You do not know Who He is.

You do not appreciate the sacrifices He makes for you to show you the negative side of Man.

Have faith in Yourself and in Allah and the Islamic religion.

If you have a doubt, please do not disturb G.

He may create another leader.

I have chosen you but you have not gone to the college.

You have your duties with college, do it Yourself.

You have your project, do it well.

You feel sleepy because, you have not disciplined Yourself.

You must be up very early in the morning.

You must be in your working place at 08:30 am and leave at 05:30 pm.

You must leave your working place after the time is over.

Meet good friends, read books.

Everything is so simple when you decide, not otherwise.

You get up at 10:00 am, you reach your house by 12:00 midnight.

The Qur'an, nobody should humiliate the Qur'an.

Do what you want and be happy.

It is the best example to give when your ego is on the top.

What I say My children, one of you will record it.

In future all of you will have a note book.

You, you use your ears, Mind and you use your mouth to read it loud.

By so doing, you activate your nose to breathe, you activate your skin to 'Sense of Touch', to prepare to respond when the reading is over.

My children, you have My daughter who has come from the country that has torn into pieces.

An individual who comes from such a place will feel very, very lonely, will not know what to do.

Am I doing right or not?

Should I do this or not?

There is a conflict in Mind like a country that has been torn down.

Many lives have been lost and majority of them were innocent.

That country must be built back in the shortest possible time.

That is, the citizens of that country, of that nation, they have to first respect the law, second to be educated in all fields, third, their health and the environment must be good.

Finally, they must choose a leader, a leader who should have ability and capability to understand the subjects and the needs of the country.

My children, when you focus your attention away your Mind is unable to control your senses.

And if a Mind does not control your senses you will never find the solution.

It is your Mind that has to be transformed into the computer.

I have told each one of you; Spiritually develop your Mind.

That is what I want 'SC' to achieve throughout the World.

Every human Mind must work without the limit.

The World's best computer is the human Mind.

You teach it ones very carefully, it is stored and kept.

It can be done just like moving two fingers.

The first, whatever you do, make that as your prayer and with full concentration. Everything that you do, every second do it with full concentration.

You can, if you control.

You have set up your station, without a station, you cannot function, you cannot develop.

All of you will adopt this child of Mine.

She breaks down and cries.

You are going to create a leader and I am going to show you how, you will do it.

My children, G took only three (3) trips to a country called Uruguay.

The President to be, thought he is nobody and he has no money to spend.

But, today, he is the President.

If three visits from one simple individual can bring about a big change to a country you do not know and the language you cannot speak.

Create a government in your website.

Create all the Ministries that each one of you can think of.

Create paperless transactions.

Think, My children before you leave; that Presidential system can work this way.

Have no more than nine (9) departments.

Work on that, My children.

You will be surprised the number of countries that will adapt your system.

This has to be a secret among Yourselves and a few who will not be able to come.

From the 1st of the 9th month all of you will be absorbed and work with 'SC'.

I have told you to adopt her.

Do you know why young man, G was very impressed with you?

'SC' started in 1990's nothing was done, it was, it was kept for all of you.

Move very fast, think fast but act faster.

For the action must be your thought, the action must be faster.

My children, do not worry about your health and your Parents.

Concentrate on building your Mind.

For 'SC' must be remembered by all Man and all forms.
