

Open Your Heart, Let The Divine Go In & Respect Yourself, My Children!

Divine blessings, My children.

Today in 'Kali Yuga', there are two things that you should follow very carefully, the word 'Sorry' and the word 'Promise' - must be removed from all dictionary, so that individuals will not get away by saying 'Sorry'.

If they have done a mistake they must accept it, not say 'Sorry'.

You shouldn't 'Promise' if you are not going to keep to the 'Promise'.

So, these two words are dangerous words in this Age of Time, My children.

Never begin to compare one with the other, especially to the Mothers - do not compare your children with other children in the school; for when you start comparing then you will start competition and when a competition starts between Mothers, today the Fathers do not take care of the children and the Mothers will want to do better for their child than the other child, so there is a huge competition there that takes place.

And you will find wealth is lost.

Human values are disappearing with competition because you tend to corrupt, including the teachers who teach.

Today, there is no honest teacher.

All the teachers are there in the school just to wait when the final bell will ring, so that their tuition start.

You can't get a teacher to be there in the school to teach, My children.

This is what is happening with the Mothers and their children, competition.

When competition starts then you come to conflicts, My children.

You start arguing.

This Mother argues with the other Mother, 'No My child had 91'; 'No, my child had 91.1'.

See, how conflict start, hatred comes in.

Anger, hatred, jealousy, greed and ego fulfils; today every family builds their ego.

All of them want the best, but when the best comes, they never make use of the best.

Everyone wants luxury, but do you need it?

Have you asked the question?

Is this good for me?

Can I live without it?

Yes, My children, be careful.

And to all Mothers be careful.

There are many, because of their children's well-fare, they begin to sacrifice human values that they uphold.

Be careful.

Mothers must be careful at all times, to see that the children uphold human values.

It is very important, My children.

'Prema, Satya, Dharma, Shanti and Ahimsa' are the human values.

Whatever you do put these values in front of you and then see whether they fit well.

If you follow these five (5) values in whatever you want to do, then your decision is right.

Function with your Conscious or the Atma within you, not with your Mind, don't try to analyse, don't try to bring about Past experience and try to put in front of you, it will not work, My children.

The World is changing so fast - inventions, innovations are coming - before it was in years, now it has come to months, now it has come to weeks, My children.

Today, you may think you have found something, but tomorrow - that something that you have found has become the Past.

Live in the Present.

It is not solar power or anything, all Energies are given by the five (5) elements, My children.

Energy is controlled by these five (5) elements and nothing else in the World.

And these five (5) elements are within you.

You are the most powerful transmitter.

You are the most powerful power house, My children.

The Energy that you can bring out of Yourself from within is more powerful than five (5) lightnings put together.

You do not know, individuals in the Past, they use these Energies to travel.

That is how 'Vahanas' came into being.

They were flying with what power?

It was Human Energy Power and you will find very soon, it is this Human Energy Power that will be powering your car, your house lights; no more solar power too.

All that you have to know is how to bring the power out of you and by waves it will go and light up your house.

It is coming, My children.

It is coming very fast.

Live in the Present.

You have to live in the Present.

Don't even turn and look at the Past.

It is not going to come and don't make use of that as an experience, 'Oh, in the Past we did this'.

All that is gone even to all the Fathers and Grandfathers and the Great-Grandfather, they must forget it.

Your child who is three (3) years old knows better things than you know, for your age, My children.

You can't tell, 'I am telling you this with experience'.

There is no experience, My child.

The computer in front of you brings all the experience that is necessary from all parts of Divine Mother Earth.

The most important places that you must go is the Himalayas.

Go to the oceans.

Go to all the mountain peaks.

Go and rest for a little while.

Walk on them, then you will know what powers that you can derive from them.

The Himalayas-only those who are called by Everest you can go and watch Her.

She is the Mother.

She is so powerful, including Kailash and all the rangers around the World.

All the oceans must be respected, My children.

The power changes.

Everyone says the environment is changing.

Yes, nothing is changing, My children.

Everything is normal.

It is all politicians are there in every subjects today that is being taught - is run by politicians and business individuals - all for their own gains.

This is what is happening.

Mother Earth knows how to look after Her.

And the five (5) elements are there.

Nothing to worry.

The World will never end, My children.

Earthquakes and volcanos have to come, for the volcanos are Message sent to other Planets in the Universe to say that the Mother Earth is alive.

Mother Earth must make changes.

That is why earthquakes and natural disasters come.

When anyone is killed during natural disasters, you are born again immediately, My children.

The moment the natural disaster has taken lives, those lives are born in the babies who are being born at different parts of Divine Mother Earth.

You are not a human being.

You are above human beings My children to be born in this Age of Time.

You have taken a human birth but you are not a human being.

You must understand this important fact.

You have come to unite with the Divine by 'Yoga', My children.

You have come for this.

Open your heart, let the Divine go in and respect Yourself, My children.

Your Atma is nothing but the Divine.

That is why the 'Atma Murthy' was created.

The Divine always says, 'Call Me-Atma', 'Call Me-Atma', 'Call Me-Atma'.

Divine blessing, My children.

Divine blessing.

Divine blessing.
